

PRIMEX EXPERIENCE IN AGRICULTURE AND NATURAL RESOURCES (ANR)

The ANR sector is one of PRIMEX's core sectors, with the Company's ongoing and completed projects in this sector comprising 31% of all of its engagements in the last 10 years. Its experience in this sector covers all the stages in the Project Cycle – from project identification to preparation/feasibility-level analysis, detailed design, construction supervision, project management, and evaluation. In addition, PRIMEX conducts policy review and formulation, master planning and investment programming, institutional assessment and institutional strengthening, training needs assessment (TNA) and design and delivery of various training courses, and knowledge management and the preparation of various knowledge products, among others. PRIMEX adopts the participatory, consultative approach involving all key stakeholders to reach a consensus and ensure social inclusion in its various planning, implementation, and evaluation activities.
