

PRIMEX EXPERIENCE IN EDUCATION

PRIMEX's experience in the education sector started with the design and delivery of training programs/courses, both as independent activities and as core strategies of its different projects in different sectors for various clients across a range of sectors. From there, PRIMEX has gone into technical and vocational education and training (TVET) as well as secondary education. In the last decade, the following project examples illustrate the services that PRIMEX has provided to ADB and government clients in the Asia-Pacific region.
